(Spring 2009 by Gregorian Reckoning)

A Brief History of Central Rivers Region

In a long-past age when the great lands which now form the Kingdom of An Tir and within them the cool waters and forests of Rivers Region, a barony crowned by three beautiful mountains, a barony distant to the Crown of the West, held its first event. It was a time for war and celebration, a Tourney for the High Summer in Three Mountains. It was the fair month of July, in the year Anno Societatus VIII, of Gregorian reckoning called 1973.

Beyond them, a noble household resided to the west, a household born of the deep valleys and deep autumnal fogs, a household which named its lands Dragon's Mist.

As this scribe recalls it, within that same time a new shire was formed in the fertile hills to the south. Nether Edge was its name, and it was rumored that past their croplands, fierce creatures dwelt in the mountains beyond.

At this time too did a fair shire rise up on the north side of the great river called Columbia, and the good folk there named their lands Stromgard. And the year was Anno Societatus XIV, or 1980 by Gregory's reckoning.

Soon did the people of the Principality of An Tir rise up in revolt against the West, declaring their independence as a rightful Kingdom of the Known World, and the sounds of rejoicing filled every hill and valley, river and stream, out to the Great Western Sea. And it was January anno Societatus XVI, or 1982 as called by the Gregorian calendar.

Now it came to pass that the people of the deep valleys and deep autumnal fogs sought council with the household there, and the two came together as one to form the shire of Dragon's Mist. This great concord was accomplished in June anno Societatus XVII, and by the following January, Dragon's Mist arose a new jewel in the Crown of An Tir.

In the ensuing years, Nether Edge faded away into the mists from whence it came, and Vin Oak sprouted from the fertile hills. It too passed into history, but soon a new canton arose there under the stewardship of Three Mountains known as Mountain's Edge. Within a few brief years, it became the shire of Mountain Edge, and so it remains today.

Stromgard grew from its shire roots into a thriving barony, becoming recognized as such in January Anno Societatus XXXIV, or the year 2000 by Gregorian reckoning.

Three years ago, Rivers had another jewel added to its crown of luminaries. The incipient canton of Kaldor lies to the north and west of Three Mountains, under whose patronage it continues to thrive.

All of these branches are full of friendly and interesting folk. The skill and knowledge of all is a source of mutual admiration and inspiration, regardless of the area of individual endeavor.

IN MEMORIAM

This edition of the Directory is dedicated in loving memory to our dearest friend the Honorable Ciaran Cluana Ferta, who left this mortal plane July 20th, 2008, and who is now no doubt conversing with his favorite composer William Byrd and teaching madrigals to the heavenly choirs. His Directory entry would have read:

Awards: Jambe de Leon, Goutte de Sang, Sable Chime, Award of Arms, WOAW, Golden Torc x 3 (Three Mountains), Seamair (Stromgard), Silver Seastar (Stromgard), Dragon's Tear (Dragon's Mist), Dragon's Scale (Dragon's Mist), Magister Ithra x 2

Offices/Positions held: Seneschal x 2 (Dragon's Mist), Herald, Chronicler, Chamberlain, Kingdom Heraldic staff (multiple positions, including Argent Scroll Education & Training Deputy)

Interests: heraldry, vocal music

Or, a curragh proper sailed and tillered gules, in chief two celtic crosses sable.

NOTES on the Directory

This Directory represents members of the populace of the Shire of Dragon's Mist, along with some of her neighbors from the Shire of Mountain Edge, the Barony of Stromgard, and the Barony of Three Mountains. In some cases, some information has been withheld to honor a request for privacy. The Kingdom and local branch Rolls of Arms have been consulted to bring the "Awards" information up to date.

Among these listings, you will find persons with the accolade of "Champion" or "Defender." Branches hold annual competitions for the best local endeavors in Arts & Sciences, Heavy (Armored) Combat, Rapier Combat, and Archery. Having landed nobility, baronies are allowed to style the winners of these contests "Champions"; shires, which have no such nobility, call them "Defenders."

"Offices/Positions held" reflects offices and positions both past and present.

The hard copy version of the Directory has been produced in an 8 ½ x 11 format to reduce paper waste. It includes both phone numbers and e-mail addresses. The online version on the Dragon's Mist website does not include phone numbers or e-mail links in order to protect people from spammers, marketers, phishers, and other such undesirable individuals.

Gentlefolk wishing information on any of the Central Rivers Region branches and their activities are encouraged to visit the following websites:
